

Please consider my comments in order to reject the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) petition 04-160. While I very seldom listen to FM radio anymore, they still have a place. But, so do the satellite providers. The subscribers, including myself, are paying for this service. The fee includes whatever information XM chooses to provide. If the market didn't demand it, they wouldn't offer it.
Thank you.